TWENTY DEAD IN COLLISION ON SANTA FE

Springer, N. M. (AP)—Twenty railway workers perished early today when the speeding Santa Fe Chief smashed head-on into a mail train on a siding in northern New Mexico.

Railway officials said the death toll may be higher when wrecking crews pry into the twisted and torn cars.

At least seven were injured. Santa Fe spokesmen said as far as can be determined there were no passengers killed in the early-morning tragedy.

The Chief shot into the siding when Santa Fe mail train No. 8 was waiting its turn for the main line.

The dead included the engineer of the mail train, the engineer, fireman and conductor of the Chief, and 16 waiters and lounge car attendants who were asleep in a dormitory car on the Chief.

The identified dead are Babe Foster, fireman; W. H. Adams, engineer; and Walter Shriver, conductor of the Chief; and Leo Rush, engineer on the mail train.

Associated Press writer John B. Curtis said "the task even of determining the number of dead is horribly complicated because of condition of the trains."

Ambulances, doctors and officers from most of northern New Mexico were summoned to the scene.

The accident occurred at 8:10 a. m. five miles south of here in gently rolling ranch country. The main line of the Santa Fe at this point parallels U. S. Highway 85.

Only the diesel units of the mail train went off the track, crushed and torn.

Of 13 cars in the Chief, only seven remain on the track. Others, Curtis said, were "twisted, and mangled and telescoped, pointing upward at grotesque angles."

A Santa Fe spokesman said the Chief ran through an open switch and into the siding where the mail train was waiting.

The mail train normally does not carry passengers, though it has a passenger car on the rear for employees. On this train today however, there was a bunk car of track workers and a Santa Fe business car.

Ambulance Service To Be Discontinued Midnight, Sept. 30

This statement was issued following a meeting last evening when local funeral directors discussed the abandonment of ambulance service.

"At a meeting of all local funeral directors it was established that they will continue their ambulance service until midnight Sept. 30th at which time they will definitely discontinue the service. They wish to make it clear that they do not now or have not at any time contemplated keeping any part of this service—namely, long distance trips, oxygen service, or any other related services.

"Their intention to withdraw from this field of service was made public at a meeting last May 22nd when they met with representatives of the boro, medical society, and Warren General Hospital."

STEALS WATCHDOG

Egg Harbor, N. J. (AP)—Jerome Lauer, owner of a garage in nearby Elwood, reported to police that thieves broke into his establishment and stole only one thing: His watchdog, Sport.

Legion Drum and Bugle Corps Reports Two More Appearances

The American Legion's snappy Cornplanter Drum and Bugle Corps elected officers for the coming year at a meeting last night in the legion home. Retiring corps captain, Greg Berger, presided.

Elected were: Al Buerkle, new corps commander; William Brooks, corps lieutenant; Jack Barr, business manager; Greg Berger, finance officer; William Pearson, quartermaster; Richard Thompson, bugle sergeant; Cliff Briggs, drum sergeant.

Officer installation will take place at the legion home October 13. At that time it is hoped Dan Cook of Pittsburgh, an all-American judge of drum and bugle

Governor Says He Will Seek Grand Jury Investigation of Charges on Turnpike "Grab"

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. Leader said today he would seek a grand jury investigation of what he termed "one of the greatest public swindles of all time" in the operation of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission under Republican control.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen will file a petition with the Dauphin County Court tomorrow, Leader said, asking that a special grand jury be called to follow through on his charges.

"The people who set out to loot the Turnpike Commission set their goal at nearly 20 million dollars," the governor told a specially called news conference.

"Before their activities had been halted they had got their hands on $9,064,241.42."

"The instrumentality of this fraud is the Manu-Mine Research and Development Corp.," the governor said.

Leader identified Charles W. Stickler Jr., Manu-Mine president, as the nephew of Thomas J. Evans, who resigned last year as chairman of the Turnpike Commission. Evans is a Schuylkill County Republican.

Stickler, reached by telephone at his Reading office, described Leader's statement as "a serious charge" as a reporter read it to him.

"We're going to have plenty of answers to all that," he said. "This is a fulfillment of certain threats made against us when we wouldn't accede to certain demands made by the administration."

Stickler declined to elaborate on this statement. He said he would issue details in a written statement later in the day.

Asked whether he is denying the allegations made by Leader, Stickler replied: "absolutely."

A telephone call to the home of Thomas J. Evans at Coaldale brought a response from his wife that the former Turnpike Chairman was out of town until later in the day. But Mrs. Evans described the charges in this manner:

"If Leader is saying that, he is nuts."

The Evans' son, Richard H. Evans, was also listed by Leader as a stockholder in Manu-Mine. The son, however, was the first fatality on the Northeastern Extension of the super highway.

Manu-Mine was hired by the Turnpike Commission to flush mine voids under a portion of the Northeastern Extension of the super highway. The commission, after Democrats took control, cancelled its contract with Manu-Mine.

The firm has filed suit for more than a million dollars which it said is still due from the commission. The same firm recently hired private detectives to look into the activities of Cohen and Highways Secretary Joseph J. Lawler, who also serves on the Turnpike Commission.

Leader called a special news conference to make public his 1,000 word statement on preliminary results of an investigation of the agency.

1945 Miss America Is Having a Court Battle With Spouse

New York (AP)—Brunette beauty Bess Myerson, Miss America of 1945, has opened a court battle with her handsome husband for custody of their 9-year-old daughter.

The estranged pair could not reach agreement in court yesterday, however, so the hearing was postponed.

Miss Myerson, who now appears on television, charged in an affidavit that her husband Allan Wayne had threatened to "do away with himself" and the little girl.

Wayne, a doll firm executive, has charged that his wife "spirited away" their daughter Barbara from his apartment.

Barbara clung to her mother on the way to the hearing in Manhattan Supreme Court. But when she saw her father, she scampered into his arms and kissed and hugged him.

In postponing the case, Justice Matthew M. Levy said it is his "fond hope that the parties can become reconciled."

AUTO CRASH FATALITY
Pittsburgh (AP)—Injuries suffered in a weekend auto crash proved fatal yesterday for John Behanna, 50, a mill worker at Donora. His auto rammed a guard rail on Route 906 a mile east of Donora.

"Eager" Students "Besiege" Beatty

There was no "dillering or dollaring or 10 o'clock schooling" at Beatty School this morning as an estimated 1,160 boys and girls queued up right on time, a scene repeated all over Warren Borough and County as schools reopened just when summer weather seemed to have arrived. Above is the crowd gathering on the east side of Beatty School. Timesphoto by Saylor.

Condition of Crash Victim Still Critical

The condition of Eugene Lafferty, 24, of RD 1, Meadville, was reported to be still "critical" at Warren General Hospital this afternoon. The man was seriously injured Saturday night in an accident on Matthews Run Road, north of Youngsville, which took the life of his bride of three months, Mrs. Jane Therese Boyersmith Lafferty. He is suffering a broken right leg, multiple bruises and abrasions and possible internal injuries. Lapsing into a coma Sunday morning, hospital attendants report he is "not responding" to treatment.

Veep's Father Loses Fight To Vote in the Fall

Whittier, Calif. (AP)—Frank A. Nixon has lost his long fight to vote once more for his son, Vice President Richard Nixon.

Death came quietly last night to the 77-year-old former grocer. He struggled nearly two weeks against a combination of crucial ailments, and then, realizing the end was near, calmly arranged his own funeral services.

Earlier he had hoped to vote again. "I'm going to make it," he told his physician last week. "I want to be around to vote in November."

The vice president, his two brothers, Edward and F. Donald, and their mother, Mrs. Hannah Nixon, 71, were at the elder Nixon's side when he died. Mrs. Nixon held his hand until the end.

Dr. I. N. Kraushaar said a pulmonary congestion was the immediate cause of death. Ill since a stomach ulcer hemorrhaged in July, he became critical Aug. 22.

Chief Deputy Delivers Prisoner to Workhouse

Chief Deputy Donnell Allen today took Robert L. Smith, 28, of RD 1, Oakview to Allegheny County Workhouse at Blawnox, near Pittsburgh, where Smith will serve not less than six months to a year for burglary and larceny. Smith was picked up by Warren police on July 17 and charged with theft of several hundred dollars from Carlson's Oldsmobile Station about three years ago.

Earlier this summer he admitted he was implicated with a gang of juveniles who poached gasoline wholesale.

Yesterday, Sheriff Larry Linder took Theodore Kinsley, 20, of RD, Oakview, to Pennsylvania Industrial School at White Hill for an indefinite term. Originally sentenced for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, the youthful offender started to reformatize and that constituted a parole violation. (All Industrial School sentences are indefinite, with boys being released when school officials deem proper.)

Teachers' Meeting Launches Opening of the 1956-57 Term Of Warren Borough Schools

Dr. Carl E. Whipple, school superintendent, keynoted the teachers' meeting yesterday afternoon in Beatty auditorium by citing the place of the United States in current development.

The country does, he noted, operate 60 percent of the world's telephone and telegraph facilities, owns 80 percent of the motor cars in use, operates 33 percent of the railroads, produces 70 percent of the oil, 60 percent of the wheat and cotton, 50 percent of the copper and pig iron, and 40 percent of the world's lead and coal output.

Then, quoting from the commencement address given at Massachusetts Institute of Technology by Neil McElroy, Proctor and Gamble President and White House Education Conference Chairman, Dr. Whipple continued: "The concept of developing individual capacities through education has been important throughout our history in America. And from the standpoint of providing a basic education for all citizens, we have put this concept into practice with unrivaled success. But we face today a crucial responsibility to do much more."

"Civilization has always been competitive . . . not only in wars, but in commerce, in industry, in culture, and other fields of human endeavor . . . But (also needed) is leadership of a more general nature—leadership in the quality of thinking and vision; leadership in finding the solutions to social and political problems; leadership in inspiring the confidence of others. We need the creative imagination, the boldness, the refusal to accept the obvious or to recognize the 'impossible.' Our problems are big; they need big solutions."

"The objective of providing for a greatly increased youth population the type of elementary and secondary schooling which this country needs and deserves; the compelling need for finding ways to identify young people of above-average ability."

ENROLLMENT FOR SCHOOL OPENING
Ever-increasing numbers of public school students brought a total of 3,783 into Warren School District elementary and secondary buildings today for the opening of the 1956-57 term, a jump of 191 over last year's first-day figure of 3,592. Warren High School accounted for 884 of this number; Beatty Junior High 1,211, including 14 special students. Elementary buildings had a total of 1,688, apportioned as follows: East, 232; Home, 218; Jefferson, 504, plus 13 special students; Lucy, 352; McClintock, 206; Seneca, 52; South, 111.

The first 1,896,062,400 stamps are to be delivered by Dec. 15. Subsequent deliveries will be at the rate of about 500,000 a month.

Under terms of the sales tax legislation the stamps must go into use Jan. 1 or "as soon thereafter as practicable."

REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO ATTEND PITTSBURGH RALLY
A number of Warren area Republicans will be in Pittsburgh Saturday morning for a big party rally which will open the aggressive fall election campaign in the state.

It will be a state committee meeting with county chairmen and vice chairmen at Penn Sheraton Hotel.

Attending from Warren will be Attorney W. Scott Calderwood, state Republican committeeman; Sunny Lucia, Warren County Republican Committee vice president; Ralph E. Sires, Warren County Republican Committee Secretary; and Mrs. R. E. Sires.

MID AIR CRASH
Nagoya, Japan (AP)—The U. S. Air Force said two jet fighter planes collided and crashed near Nagoya today, killing one pilot and destroying a house. The second pilot parachuted from his damaged plane and suffered only minor injuries. Names of the fliers were withheld.

FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE IS SAID TO PREVAIL IN SPITE OF NUMEROUS DISAGREEMENTS

Cairo, Egypt (AP)—The Menzies Committee and President Nasser were reported today "down to the meat" of the Suez Canal controversy and proceeding cautiously in their talks on a possible solution.

A source close to the five-nation group headed by Australian Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies described the atmosphere as friendly despite many disagreements.

The committee—Australia, Ethiopia, Iran, Sweden and the United States—is pushing an 18-nation plan for international operation of the 103-mile Mediterranean-to-Red Sea waterway, which Egypt nationalized July 26. The plan came originally from Secretary of State Dulles and was worked out at the 22-nation London Suez conference Aug. 10-24.

In Paris, the 15-nation council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization was to get a report from British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd on the London Suez conference.

Foreign Minister Christian Pinxten of Belgium and Lester B. Pearson of Canada also were on hand for the one-day NATO meeting. Permanent NATO headquarters representatives were attending for the other countries.

In the three sessions held since Monday, the Menzies mission has outlined the international control proposal. In the third meeting last night, Nasser told the committee what he thought of the plan.

Menzies afterward reported, "both sides began the clarification and discussion of various points of difference." He described the atmosphere as good and said, "we are still in the preliminary stages."

What the Egyptian leader said remained a secret. But before the meeting, Egyptian sources had predicted he would give his opinion on Egypt's right to take over the canal and his willingness to keep it open to all.

Nasser has said previously he would agree to nothing more than an international guarantee of free navigation on the canal and would not accept any international control plan.

Egypt, meanwhile announced it had freed 2 or 30 persons arrested in its investigation of an alleged spy ring. Prosecutor General Hafez Sabek said it was proved "they were not in any way implicated in the case."

MOTHER OF FOUR HELD TO FACE MURDER HEARING
Pittsburgh (AP)—Mrs. Beatrice Lachell, 31, was free today under $2,500 bond awaiting grand jury action on charges she murdered her husband after he forced her to perform a "tease" dance before other men.

A coroner's jury yesterday recommended the mother of four be held on a murder charge in the fatal stabbing of her husband August 23. Two brothers of the dead man asked the court to release Mrs. Lachell on bond. Judge John J. Kennedy granted the request.

AGED DOCTOR DIES
Johnstown (AP)—Dr. George H. Sloan, died in his home at Mineral Point, RD 1, yesterday on his 90th birthday. Dr. Sloan began his practice at the age of 20, spending his entire 70-year medical career in the nearby Carrolltown area. Though ill the past six months, he continued a limited practice.

MACING TRIALS DELAYED BY DEATH OF ATTY. MARGIOTTI
Pittsburgh (AP)—It's unlikely that macing trials will be held before the Nov. 6 election for 15 former Republican state employees charged with forcing state workers to contribute to campaign funds, Dist. Attorney Edward C. Boyle reports.

Boyle said yesterday the trials will be delayed because of the death of Atty. Charles J. Margiotti who represented most of the defendants.

The 15—including Artemas C. Leslie, former insurance commissioner, and Frederick P. Hare, a member of former Gov. John S. Fine's cabinet—were indicted by an Allegheny county grand jury in October, 1954.

Stevenson Makes a Qualified Pledge To Halt Military Draft

Los Angeles (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson subscribed today "with all my heart" to what he called the national will that the military draft be ended at the "earliest possible moment consistent with the national safety."

The Democratic presidential nominee included that qualified pledge to halt the draft in a major address prepared for delivery at the 38th annual convention of the American Legion.

Stevenson worked on the speech after a rousing welcome at International Airport in which he and Estes Kefauver claimed the Democrats are united for the campaign ahead.

It was here in California that Stevenson and Kefauver, now the Democratic ticket for 1956, staged the last and one of the bitterest clashes of the presidential primaries. Stevenson won.

Stevenson's address today sprayed the GOP with criticism, accusing it of "a shocking abuse of the elementary political decency" in handling the peace issue.

He said the claim that the Democrats were responsible for the Korean War and the Republicans stopped it was "as miserable a fraud as has ever been used by a political party to confuse and embitter a people who must govern themselves on facts not fiction."

Stevenson issued a plea for "honesty in our national debate about war and peace." He said this debate will be poisoned if one party claims a deeper love for peace than the other.

Stevenson said that the GOP charge that under the Democrats prosperity depends on war is infamous. The truth is, he said, that no depression followed World War II and that readjustment was accomplished painlessly under a Democratic administration with "ever increasing prosperity."

Rosh Hashona Rites Set To Start This Evening at Dusk

The birthday of the world will be marked amid the hushed solemnity of prayer in synagogues throughout the world beginning at nightfall this evening.

Rosh Hashonah is the beginning of the religious new year for citizens of Jewish faith, and is the first of the "Yomim N'raim", the Days of Awe.

This special season is referred to as the Ten Days of Repentance, marking a period of man's self-examination of his relationships with his fellowman and to his Creator.

The idea of "Tahuvah," or Penitence, is the moral beacon of the solemn services, and the entire period culminates in the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, the most solemn holy day in the Jewish religious calendar, which this year falls on September 15.

Rosh Hashonah services will be held on Thursday and Friday in Traditional synagogues, and only on the first day in Reform temples.

One of the key aspects of the Rosh Hashonah season is its striking symbolism of freedom of the soul. It is called the Day of the Blowing of the Shofar, the ancient and historic ram's horn.

There is a month of spiritual preparation before Rosh Hashonah, with one blast of the Shofar in many synagogues each morning of the month preceding Rosh Hashonah.

Housecleaning weeks in advance precedes the holiday. New clothes are purchased, especially for the children. It is a season for family reunions.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Sept. 1, 1958
Editor, Times-Mirror
Warren, Pa.
Dear Sir:

I completely agree with your recent editorial that our new high school be built on the present school site instead of the out-of-the-way Swick property.

I have been told that students living within a mile and one half of the school site will not be given bus transportation, in accordance with regulations.

Such a rule is reasonable where the distance to be walked is along a level route, but hiking up a comparatively steep hill is a different matter.

When so many more students would be required to walk to the Swick site than would have to walk to the existing site, the School Board should not consider that location as a possible site at all.

Sincerely,
J. H. C.

MARINE MEETING
With considerable business on the agenda, every member of General Joseph Pendleton Detachment, Marine Corps League, is asked to be on hand for the regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the VFW post rooms. There will be reports of the finance and building committees, discussion of new projects, and a report on the Family Picnic held August 25 at The Box. Members are reminded of their dues, payable now, and are urged to secure new members. The local detachment was one of nine in the state to increase its membership 100% in the past year, it has been learned.

Engineer Position In Highway Dep't Reported as 'Open'

An Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg says the State Highway Department reports the post of district highway engineer in Northwestern Pennsylvania is open, but says it has no immediate prospects for the position.

A department spokesman is quoted in the dispatch as saying this does not mean Joseph R. Fogo, Cochran, who is acting district engineer, will be dismissed. It could mean, however, that Fogo could revert to the position he formerly held of assistant district engineer.

Senator Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, said he met last Tuesday with Alden Phelps, Erie County Democratic chairman, on the matter. Barr said Phelps subsequently submitted a name to the highways department for the post.

The department spokesman said the candidate, however, failed to meet the qualifications required for the engineer post. The department does not have any names of prospective candidates for the spot before it now, the spokesman said.

Sheepmen throughout the tri-county area have received notices of the lamb pool with a postcard enclosed asking the number of lambs to be marketed. They are to be filled out and returned immediately. The last two pools, one at Union City and one at Meadville, have been successful from the standpoint of sheepmen. Satisfaction with both grades and weights has been expressed by practically all the consignors.

Bell Co. Proposed Rate Increase Put Off to December 14

The Public Utility Commission has suspended for an additional three months to December 14, a proposed $36,000,000 annual rate increase for the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg says.

An initial six-months suspension of the proposed increase—largest ever asked by a Pennsylvania utility—ends Sept. 14.

The PUC prolonged the suspension in order that it might have more time to complete its investigation of the requested boost.

The cities of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton, Bethlehem, Washington and Chester filed complaints against the increase along with other groups.

Since the inquiry began last Feb. 15, a total of 22 hearings have been held with future hearings scheduled for Harrisburg Sept. 12-13 and 18-19.

Under law, the commission has the power to suspend a rate increase for a total of nine months.

Information About By-Passes Listed In Memorandum

The "Save Route 6 Committee" has completed and placed in the mails an interesting memorandum on the subject of "By-Passes," copies of which have been received by officers of the Warren Chamber of Commerce. Among other facts it contains this information:

"Such local opposition as has existed to inclusion of Route 6 on the Interstate System has been due to fear of the limited access features of Interstate Highways and the by-passing of local communities. Such fears, we are sure, are because of lack of information and facts.

"The answer to this is found in the U. S. Chamber of Commerce publication "How By-Passes Affect Business". The following data is digested from that pamphlet for your information:

"A. Advantages of Bypass Routes to Communities Bypassed:

1. General increase in business activity.
2. Property values increase in area traversed by bypass.
3. Parking made more convenient.
4. Pedestrian safety and convenience increased.
5. Fewer traffic accidents and delays on city streets.
6. Less wear and tear in city streets.
7. Reduced noise, exhaust fumes and traffic conflicts.
8. Reduced hazard of explosion, fire and gas leaks from trucks passing through.
9. Through traffic expedited and accorred savings.
10. Local traffic control expedited.

"B. Disadvantages:

The principal disadvantage comes from disruption of certain tourist business to road-side facilities, but is in actually more feared than realized. Studies of communities having had experience with by-passes shows both over-all increase in business and increase in business by those service facilities at first fearful of the change, and at first affected adversely.

Information About Vets Resume Bi-Monthly Meetings This Thursday

Warren Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 631, will resume bi-monthly meetings at 8 p. m. this Thursday.

Anderson's Super Market To Give Away 2,000 Orchids

A nice fresh orchid, flown in by special plane from Hawaii will be the gift for all women shoppers during the anniversary celebration that will open tomorrow at the Anderson Super Market, 1817 Pennsylvania avenue east.

This announcement is made in a full page color advertisement appearing in today's issue of the Times-Mirror.

The Anderson's are taking this unusual method of saying "thank you" for the wonderful patronage accorded them since they opened their new and modernly-equipped market following the fire of over a year ago.

It is just a year ago since the present commodious super market with its unlimited facilities for parking was opened. Since that time the proprietors report surprisingly increased business.

The anniversary celebration will start when the store opens Thursday morning at eight o'clock and continue until it closes Saturday evening. During that time as long as the 2,000 orchids last they will be presented to all women shoppers.

Readers are invited to study the special advertisement which will be found on page 11 of this issue.

WRIGHTSVILLE

Youngsville — Local members are reminded the first fall meeting of Warren-Forest Girl Scout Council board will be held at 1:30 p. m. September 11 at the Warren Scout headquarters.

American Legion Auxiliary members heard a report from the Philadelphia convention, given by Mrs. Florence Mourer and Mrs. Dorothy Peterson at the picnic on Island Park. Members voted to buy a flag for the color guard being formed at the school.

Beginning today, Lonnie's Restaurant will be closed all day each Wednesday.

Maxine Danielson is home after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Martha Kohler, and husband.

Friends of Mrs. Rosadel Galmish and her son are sorry to see her leave for her new home in Burlington, N. J., where she will assume a new teaching position.

Margaret Brazee, with Mrs. Joanna Myers and daughters, of Erie, and Loretta Thompson, Youngstown, O., enjoyed a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada while on vacation.

Youngsville fire department was called to Grand Valley a few days ago, along with the Garland and Pleasantville departments, to help fight a stubborn fire which destroyed the barn of Lynn Van Gilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Olsen have a young son, born August 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ellis enjoyed a vacation trip to Toronto last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fred Foster, Smithfield, Ill., were guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Husted. Sunday, he addressed the combined ladies' and Men's Sunday School Classes. Mr. Foster, who has been blind since he was ten years old, has not let it be a handicap.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, Wilmington, Del., and their children, Robert and Dianne, spent the long holiday weekend with his mother, Mrs. Frank Martin, whom they brought home with them from a three weeks' vacation with them and with Fred Martin, in Harrington, Del.

Latest Communication From Our Community Ambassador

Editor's note: The last in a series of articles written for the Times-Mirror before she sailed for home, is sent to us from Sallie Weiler, Warren county's community ambassador to Holland.

Sallie Weiler

enly on the high seas en route home.

Holland—Never again will I think hazily of windmills and wooden shoes when I hear the word Holland, but from now on I'll have a special warm place in my heart for this country which I leave tomorrow after spending a most wonderful summer. A Dutch windmill daily pumps excess water from the land which has been laboriously reclaimed from the sea. A visiting Frenchman to Holland once remarked "God created the world with the exception of Holland which was created by the Dutchmen themselves." And ever since the 13th century, creative Dutchmen have been adding land from the sea. Up till now 2,200 square miles have been reclaimed and presently the newest polder is almost ready for inhabitants. A polder is any land below sea-level that is protected by dikes. I had a chance to be on the latest dike which is almost completed and actually see how a dike is built. First the poor soil is dredged out and replaced by sand, then sticky clay is added next. Layer after layer of sand and clay are built up in a sloping fashion. The sides of the dike are protected by huge mattresses made of sticks bound tightly together. The mattresses are held in place by heavy boulder stones dropped on top of them and lastly comes a layer of clay suitable for grass to grow on. The mills along a dike were once truly windmills entirely dependent upon the wind for power, but today most of the mills are run by steam and Diesel engines.

The Dutchmen are no longer imagined as vague people who wear wooden shoes. Instead there is my 15-year-old Dutch brother, William, whose boyish enthusiasm made flying a kite or fixing sandwiches for lunch the best fun ever. It was William who fixed my flat tire on the bike trip too. That bike trip is something I'll brag about for a long time to come, because I biked 100 miles in three unforgettable days! But I never could have accomplished such a feat without the moral support of dependable Dick who rode quietly by my side and whose silent confidence got me the last few kilometers more than once. As we unpacked in front of our Youth Hostel I had a chance to see "Well, Sybil, you made it!" And inside the Youth Hostel I would hurry so I could have a bed near to sweet Elly, the brown-haired Dutch lass whose dimpled smile I liked best to see last at night and first in the morn. Perhaps the nicest smile Elly gave me was at the end of an evening in which I learned about the honesty of a Dutchman. Several of us had been walking and we stopped for some ice cream before returning to our Youth Hostel for the night. Then we were playing "crack-the-whip" on the way back when I noticed that my billfold wasn't in my jeans pocket. So we trooped back to the restaurant, but I hadn't left it there. As it was almost time for us to be in (10:00 is usually curfew in Youth Hostels) we decided to report my loss at the local police station. While I was writing down my name my red wallet was brought in by a Dutch father and his son. They'd picked it up on the street when it had fallen from my pocket and returned it immediately to the police station. Two large dishes of ice cream were small payment indeed for two honest Dutch people and Elly's happy smile equalled mine as we skipped back to our Youth Hostel. Yes, it is time for me to come home again, but when I leave here tomorrow part of my heart stays for always in this land of so much more than just windmills and wooden shoes—Holland.

Tryouts Set for Warren Players' Initial Offering

As activities of many organizations swing into the fall and winter schedule, Warren Players' Club falls into line with the announcement of tryouts for the first production of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Andersen will be coaching "Peg O' My Heart" when the cast takes to the boards on Thursday and Friday, October 18-19, and are looking about for material with which to fill four male and five female roles.

To this end, they will hold tryouts from seven until nine on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week in the Jefferson room of Warren Public Library and urge all interested persons to be on hand for readings.

The Andersen are no newcomers to Warren dramatics. Dick, a former faculty member at Beatty Junior High School, holds a master's degree in drama from Pennsylvania State University, was active in the Penn State Players, and has had experience in both radio and television in Warren and Binghamton, N. Y. Member of Warren Players for some years, he has been active in many phases of play production.

His wife, the former Bonnie Hunter, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hunter, and majored in dramatics at Edinboro State Teachers College. She, too, has been seen in past Players' productions.

NURSES' MEETING
Warren County Practical Nurses' Association will hold its regular meeting at eight o'clock this evening at the YMCA and a large turnout is desired.

MOTHERS' CLUB TURKEY
Pre-School Mothers' Club will have its annual turkey dinner meeting Monday, September 10, at 6:30 p. m. at the camp of Mrs. C. P. Spiridon. Members will be notified by the committee.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 2:30 p. m. in Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, corner of Alston street and Pennsylvania avenue, east. A half-hour recital of organ music will precede the service.

CLARENDON AUXILIARY
Members of the Marshall Larsen Auxiliary, Clarendon VFW, will hold their regular meeting at 8:00 p. m. Thursday at the school, with lunch following the business session.

CIRCLE MEETING
Susanna Wesley Circle of First Methodist church will be entertained at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. N. Branch, 32 Water street.

CARD-BALDENSPEGER RITES ANNOUNCED
Mrs. Ellen Baldenspeger and Arthur Card were united in marriage Saturday, August 25, at 8:00 p. m. in the First Methodist church at Silver Creek, N. Y., with Mrs. Margaret Smith and E. A. Anderson as their attendants.

Following a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. Card will reside at 109 Lakeview avenue, Lakewood, N. Y., being at home to friends after September 15.

PIANO INSTRUCTION
Miss Eleanor R. Swanson, piano teacher, announces beginning of the fall term September 10 at her home, 104 Alexander street, and September 15 at the Russell Piano Studios, 206 Pennsylvania avenue, east. She may be called at 2617 for further information.

GUIDANCE GROUP
Mrs. Henry Powell, 1100 Conewango avenue, was hostess last evening for the first fall meeting of the Pre-School Guidance Group, with Miss Jane Masters, kindergarten teacher at Lacy building, discussing the purpose and benefits of kindergarten instruction. Serving with Mrs. Powell on the dessert committee were Mrs. Fred Bell, Mrs. Paul Carlson and Mrs. A. J. McDonnell.

KENNETH D. PLIMPTON
Who comes from Wilmington, Mass., and has been assigned to Jefferson School as fifth grade instructor.

Mr. Plimpton had his educational training at Wilmington High School, Boston University, Keene, N. H., Teachers College, majoring in elementary education, and did graduate work toward his master's degree at Syracuse University. From 1942 to 1946, he served with the Army field artillery in the European Theatre.

BPW MEMBERSHIP STARTS NEW SEASON
Warren Business and Professional Women's Club members unable to attend the first fall dinner-meeting next Tuesday evening at the YWCA activities building are reminded they must cancel standing dinner reservations no later than Friday. This may be done by calling Mayme Marsh, 1259-M.

Following dinner at six, President Arvilla Ittel will conduct the business session and will present as guest speaker K. Earl Abel, executive vice president of the Pennsylvania Junior Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Abel's topic will be "Parliamentary Procedure."

FAMILY GATHERING
Barnes—A pleasant dinner was enjoyed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lyle, when the following members of their family were home:

Lt. Cmdr. James Lyle and family, Newport, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lyle and family, Dayton, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Simmons and son, Mark, Pittsburgh; Don Lyle and family, Warren; Bert Lyle and family, Sheffield.

Other recent guests at the Lyle home have been Mrs. Nell Jackson and Mrs. Marjorie Anchors, Mt. Jewett; Mrs. Maude Thomas and son, Floyd, Weldbank; Mr. and Mrs. Don McFadden, Brookville.

Gathered From The Party Line

David and Marcia Beatty have returned to their home in Miami, Fla., after spending the summer in Warren and at camp.

Mrs. Josephine Knoll, Pennsylvania avenue, west, and Mrs. Mary Buser, Franklin street, returned Tuesday morning from Toronto, where they were in attendance at the Canadian National Exposition. The annual fair, which concludes Saturday of this week, had an attendance of over 310,000 on Saturday.

Miss Mary Berardi and Mrs. Anthony Barone were holiday guests of Mrs. Sam Fenice in Harrisburg.

A letter from Dick Harris brings the news that he is enroute from Newark, N. J., to California, where Nu-Lite Corporation will be opening up a new territory, likely in the Oakland area. Formerly of Warren, Dick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris, now living in Fullerton, Calif.

The September issue of Pennsylvania's "Future", published in the interests of the state Junior Chamber of Commerce, allots Warren Chapter nice coverage of its recent activities, illustrating the story with a large picture of the NFO Fourth of July float carrying the Queen and her Court. Crediting the administration of Robert E. Geiger, newly-elected president, the article deals with the national award-winning holiday program, Circus, Soap Box Derby, Bicycle Road-E-O, Tennis Clinic, construction and presentation of the Beatty tennis courts-ice rink, and the inter-state boat excursion on Lake Chautauqua.

Sunday, September 25, has been set as the date for the annual Harvest Festival in First Lutheran church, the fruits and vegetables used in decorations to be sent later to the Lutheran Home for the Aged in Erie.

Gay Simpson, daughter of Mrs. Lovena Simpson, 213 Prospect street, left Friday to attend Carnegie Institute in Cleveland, O.

First fall activity for the Youth Canteen brought out a large attendance for the Labor Day dance at The Spot.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Larimer, of Russell, spent Labor Day weekend on a motor trip visiting relatives in Williamsport, including a cousin,

MRS. DEANE L. SWANSON

Virginia Ann Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denzil E. Murray, North Warren, became the bride of Deane L. Swanson, son of Mrs. Bernice Swanson, Warren, in a ceremony performed at 2:30 p. m. September 1 in First Lutheran church. The Rev. Frederick B. Haer officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Basil A. Murray, uncle of the bride, Carol Barrett presented a half-hour recital of organ music prior to the ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride was lovely in a waltz length gown fashioned with lace bodice over satin, sabrina neckline, short sleeves, and skirt of nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace crown, trimmed with pearls and sequins, and her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift. Completing her bridal outfit, she carried a white prayer book, topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Paul N. Zahniser was matron of honor for her sister; bridesmaids were another sister, Kathleen Murray, and the bridegroom's sister, Sue Swanson. They were gownned alike in seafair taffeta, with matching headpieces, and carried cascades of bronze and yellow mums. Chissy Zahniser, flower girl for her aunt, wore white taffeta and carried a basket of assorted mums.

Mrs. Edith Alvorn, whom they had not seen in many years. At Lewisburg, they visited their brother-in-law, Russell Sterry, and at Saegertown, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brogan and Mrs. Julius Kuhn.

Nazareth, Israel, now is a town of 21,500 population.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Loranger, 17 West Wayne street, are pictured with their children, George, Robert, John, and Albert (reading left to right), on the deck of the Furness luxury liner, SS. ## Headquarters For Chest Drive To Be In Bank Building

Campaign headquarters for the 1956 Community Chest drive are opening today in Room 309, Warren Bank and Trust Building. This office is being made available to the Chest through the courtesy of the Warren Bank and Trust Company and will be open Monday through Friday until after the end of the campaign.

Marion E. Pettigrew, vice president of Sylvania Electric Products Co., will be general chairman for the campaign to raise $66,500 and Charles R. Tranter will serve as campaign director. Mrs. Allen Koebley will be office secretary.

This year's goal is 7% higher than that of 1955 but will enable the Community Chest to allot funds to the ten participating agencies which are somewhat nearer the amounts requested and needed to carry on during the coming year.

The ten agencies which benefit from the Community Chest drive include: Warren County Council Boy Scouts, Warren County Council Girl Scouts, Children's Aid Society, Child Health Center, Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., Warren Visiting Nurses, Warren Relief Association, Salvation Army, and the U.S.O.

The Erie Dispatch-Herald Monday endorsed Joseph S. Clark, Democrat, for the United States Senate. Clark, former mayor of Philadelphia, is opposing Senator James Duff, Republican, seeking re-election. Six years ago the Dispatch listed itself as politically independent.

TO CONVENTION

Blaine Mead, Warren County Commissioner, flew from Jamestown this morning for Pennsylvania County Commissioners Association Convention at Bellevue Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia. Emplaning with him were Commissioner's Clerk Ray Thompson and Mrs. Thompson. They will be joined in Philly by Attorney Richard Leuthold, Commission's Solicitor.

BRIEF TERM OF SERVICE

Paul Knapp of Mercer took over the County Home near that place two weeks ago, but he will be leaving soon. He asks to be relieved of the job as soon as a successor can be found because "there is too much work for one man." His predecessor had the job only eight months. Both men were appointed under a Democratic administration.

IN JAMESTOWN HOSPITAL

The many friends of Herbert D. "Bill" Carnes, 300 Pleasant Drive, Pleasant township, will be interested to learn that he is a patient in the Jamestown General Hospital, Room 39, where he is expected to undergo surgery tomorrow morning. He would be happy to receive greetings.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Joseph Brennenman, 34, of Mercer, a salesman for a hardware dealer there, was demonstrating a power lawnmower he had delivered to a customer, slipped on wet grass and fell, breaking his right leg. He is a hospital patient.

STILL AMONG MISSING

Mrs. Hazel Platt, 27, of Union City, RD 2, missing since Aug. 5, has not yet been located, according to her husband, Frank Ploss. She has not been seen since boarding a Westfield, N. Y., bus on Aug. 5. New York, Atlantic City and State Police, alerted by her husband, have not been able to uncover a single lead disclosing her whereabouts.

BITTEN BY WATER SNAKE

Mary Heffernan, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Heffernan of Franklin, was bitten by a water snake while wading in Sugar Creek near Cooperstown on Sunday. The bite was not severe as the skin was not penetrated.

DIDN'T DESERT KILLER

Jamestown Sun: Joseph Reade Jr., 27-year old assault slayer of his sister-in-law and 19-month old niece who was electrocuted Thursday night, was not deserted by his family during his 13-month stay at Sing Sing Prison, awaiting electrocution, according to Reade's mother, Mrs. Theodora Kline. Reade had only one visitor in the condemned row, his younger brother, Charles Reade. Reade's mother said she did not have funds for the trip, and didn't know how to get to Sing Sing. She said two of her sons, Francis and Charles, were working in the southern United States, but she didn't know where Francis' wife and daughter were. Joseph Reade's victims.

Youngsville Fair Opens With Large List of Exhibits

Youngsville—The Community Fair opened today with a fine display of exhibits. The day was highlighted by both an afternoon and evening performance of accurate shooting, rope tricks and trick riding at the State Police Rodeo, a new feature of the Fair this year.

The Kiddies' Parade, one of the attractions of the Youngsville Fair, will march Friday at 1:30 p. m., led by a portion of the High School Band. The parade will form on Bates street between College and East Main and kiddies are asked to be there at 1:15. The parade will march to Island Park, where each entrant will receive free ice cream and an amusement ticket. Winners will receive ribbons.

Classifications are as follows:
1. Costumes: Ribbons to the prettiest, funniest, most original prettiest couple, funniest couple.
2. Dolls: Largest, oldest, and largest collection.
3. Pets: Largest, smallest, most musical, dog with the longest tail, dog with the largest ears.
4. Best decorated doll carriages, wagons, tricycles, and bicycles.
Troop 60 Girl Scouts will be aides for the parade.

Television Service Clearing Up Cause Of Interference

Many local TV cable viewers were disturbed last week with the appearance of strong co-channel interference on Channel 6—Johnston.

This source of irritation has been established as CBELT, Toronto, Canada, which has changed from Channel 9 to Channel 6 and raised its power to 100 kilowatts.

Bill Loucks, manager of Warren Television Corporation, reports the twin bay antenna for Johnston was quickly removed from the top of the 80-foot tower and set up behind a giant screen close to ground level in an effort to combat the "extra picture" from Toronto.

This move is only temporary however, because Warren Television Corporation expects to have a new Channel 6 NBC station before the end of September. The source was not revealed at this time.

Fine Promotion For Well Known Local Forestry Official

Announcement in Monday's issue of the transfer of Don E. Taft to an administrative position at the Gila National Forest, Silver City, N. M., is confirmed in this release from the Warren office of the U. S. Forest Service today.

Forest Supervisor E. M. Bacon today announced that Donald E. Taft, administrative assistant of the Allegheny National Forest since April, 1944 is being promoted to an Administrative Officer position and transferred to the Gila National Forest, Silver City, New Mexico. Taft's replacement on the Allegheny will be announced in the near future.

Don started his career with the United States Forest Service on the Allegheny in 1933 and served in various clerical, administrative and fiscal capacities through the Civilian Conservation Corps program. In 1939 he was sent to Williamsport to assist in opening a Central Repair Shop for servicing equipment in central Pennsylvania and southern New York State. He subsequently worked in the fiscal and procurement divisions of Region 7 headquarters of the U. S. Forest Service in Washington, D. C. and Philadelphia, and served as Administrative Assistant of the Green Mountain National Forest at Rutland, Vermont for two years previous to returning to Warren.

Don has been particularly active in local, county and divisional sportsmen circles; in Scouting activities; the Civilian Defense organization; PTA participation; his church and various other community programs. His family has likewise been very active in the civic life of Warren.

The Taft family—his wife, Orlean, and sons Donald E., Jr. and John A.—will leave Warren on September 17 and drive to New Mexico. Their daughter, Dawn, remains in Warren to teach Chemistry in Warren High School and their daughter Claudia has returned to Washington, D. C. to complete her nurse's training.

JUNIOR RIFLE CLUB

Following the summer vacation interim, the YMCA Junior Rifle Club will start its new fall and winter season on Saturday of this week, meeting, as usual, at 9:00 a. m. at the State Armory range in Hickory street. All boys 9 to 16 years of age are urged to join up, the only requirement being that they hold YMCA memberships.

FEWER IN SWIM

Exceptionally rainy and cool weather this summer was blamed for the lowest attendance in the past six years at Ramage-Hasson swimming pool in Oil City. This year's attendance of 30,026 compares unfavorably with the 1955 attendance of 36,840 and the peak year's figure of 43,299 in 1952.

Too Many Politicians Allude to "Almighty" Without Meaning It Episcopal Leader Declares

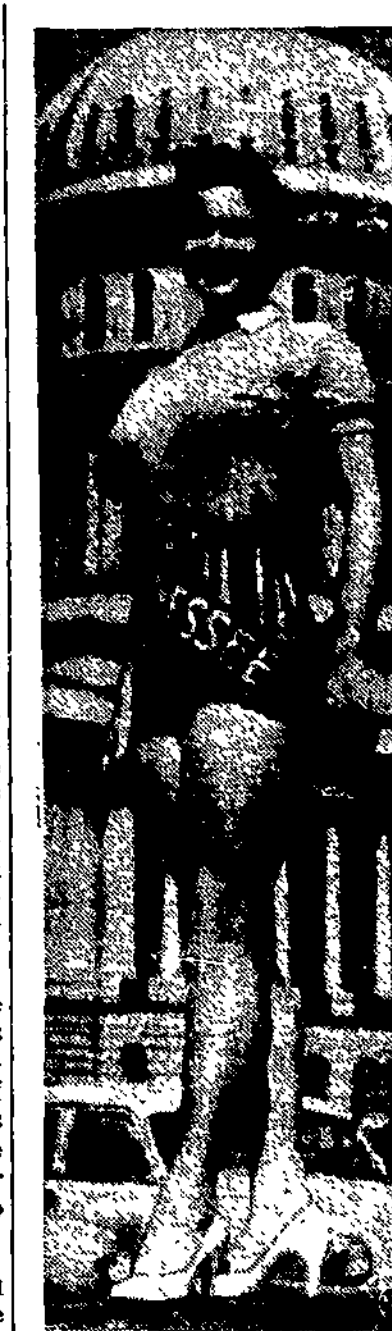

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
Politics has its own blend of piety.
As the campaign chorus swells in volume and tempo these days you catch the religious notes woven into the variations on a vote-seeking theme.
"Many of these references undoubtedly are genuine and sincere," said the Rev. Dr. Rankin Barnes, an executive of the Protestant Episcopal Church.
"But sometimes, it seems that speakers bring in the name of the Deity just to imply his blessing for whatever their position may be. This can be wrong."
It's an old custom of political oratory to allude to the Almighty, and churches encourage attention to God in all matters, including election contests, but not just as a means of popular appeal.
"It's a wonderful thing when candidates call on God for guidance and assistance to do his will," said the Rev. Camillus Balzarini, of St. Sebastian's Roman Catholic Church in New York.

"But when it's done as a mere formality, to embellish a speech and give it a religious tone; that is the way of the hypocrite."
As Jesus said a long time ago, not everyone who proclaims the words, "Lord, Lord" is on the Lord's side. And even the devil can quote scripture to his own ends by false application.
When phrases are used to suggest that divine providence is allied with a particular partisan cause, that's when it strikes religious leaders as presumptuous vanity.
"Unfortunately, there are far too many people in all sections of American life who use the word God in vain," said Rabbi Dr. Abraham J. Feldman, of Hartford, Conn., president of the Synagogue Council of America.
"Let us remember that God owes no denomination loyalties.

Mirrored in Our Times

Just the other evening—while watching TV, one of the stories featured a tale of Leonardo Da Vinci, a Florentine painter, and one of the greatest masters of the High Renaissance. Da Vinci was also celebrated as a sculptor, architect, engineer and scientist. He was the most versatile genius of his age and he towered above all contemporaries.
Another of Florentine birth and also acclaimed a master was Benvenuto Cellini—engraver, sculptor and goldsmith. Cellini created several colossal bronze works and is also noted for his "Autobiography".
Many are the masters of creating masterpieces—and one can do well, every once in a while to re-read the pages of history.
It takes a master to create a delectable Italian dish—and Page's Pizzeria specializes in such cuisine.
Today's famous men have created as well—and will, one day, be included in the pages of progress—history that a generation hence will read and admire. The name of Joseph Salk will blaze forth from pages—far more important, perhaps, than many of the headlines which followed the initial release and testing of his polio vaccine. Future recordings will include the polio incident that hit Chicago... and although the outbreak neared the epidemic stage this summer, the quick use of Salk polio vaccine, according to outstanding medical authorities, kept the disease from striking in overwhelming number. Recent articles in Time and Newsweek authenticate this fact.
Accurate statistics today show that over fifteen million children have been successfully inoculated against the dread crippling effects of infantile paralysis. Now the vaccine is available to boys and girls in all age brackets. Many parents are unaware of this fact—others have neglected to follow up after the first shot. The recommended inoculation is three—and there's no reason to overlook this valuable protection. Talk it over with your family physician—he'll advise you honestly and fearlessly.

Such vitally important information concerning medical progress in the world today is presented in the interest of public health by The Warren Drug Store—your family drug store in Warren. For prompt, accurate and friendly prescription service—stop in—or phone 1426.
"The $64,000 Question" and its subsequent "Challenge" sees a few champions come and go—at the Conewango Valley Country Club, the same is true during golf season. This year has seen many a new champ in every flight—the new ones have proved themselves "tops" in the great game.
So it goes in many fields—new talent—new faces—new names. But when it comes to other things—certain names carry on as champions year after year after year.
A perfect example—the name "Style-Mart"—famous designer and maker of champion suits for the gentlemen of distinction. New fall styles now featured at The Style Shop, with all of the proper men's accessories that add so much to your well-being.
Well, they're all back to school—and chances are that now the weather will continue "fair". Let's hope that the folks behind the wheel will be the same—give the kids a chance—"drive carefully and thoughtfully".
TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

It is very bad manners to read another person's mail without being asked to do so. Even though the letter has been opened and was received by a member of one's family it still should be regarded as private property. And that doesn't mean that one can read another person's letter and make it quite all right by telling the person and adding, "I knew you wouldn't mind."

Valley, Neb. (P) — A couple pulled their car into a gas station here, had the tank filled after which the car drove off.
The driver later recounted how 10 miles away, his eyes fixed firmly on the road, he asked his wife to light a cigaret for him. No answer. He took his eyes from the road long enough for a side glance at his wife. No wife. He returned to the gas station to pick her up.

IF YOU KNOW HOW ROATCH WAS KILLED, WHY ARE YOU SO DOUBTFUL ABOUT FINDING HIS BODY?

BECAUSE I THINK IT'S BURIED UNDER THAT 24-INCH PIPELINE WEST O' TOWN, AND I DON'T KNOW EXACTLY WHERE!

HEAVENS, YOU MEAN IN THAT DITCH NEAR THE ROAD WHERE MR. ACRES' STOLEN CAR WAS ABANDONED?

YES! THAT WAS TEN DAYS AGO! BY NOW, WELDED PIPE HAS BEEN LAID NINE MILES ON BEYOND THAT—

BUT WORK WAS HALTED ABOUT THAT TIME BY A STRIKE! THEY START AGAIN TOMORROW, ACCORDING TO TONIGHT'S PAPER!

I DIDN'T KNOW... I'VE BEEN OUT O' TOWN! SO HAS ACRES FOR EIGHT DAYS! THAT'S THE NEWS STORY THAT ALARMED HIM TONIGHT!

Jaycees Again in Charge of Ticket Sales for Reserved Seat Section at the Gridiron Games

With the Warren High Dragons taking the field at 1:30 p. m. Saturday against Corry's Beavers, in the opener of the 1956 gridiron season, and Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce again in charge of ticket sales for the reserved seat section for all home games, the latter organization announces nine o'clock tomorrow morning is the hour set for sales to begin in three local news-stores.

Mack's Newsroom, the United Cigar Store, and B and B Smoke Shop have agreed to handle the advance sales, as they have in the past.

A reserved seat ticket for a home football game may be obtained by making a 25-cent donation to the War Memorial Field Fund. This donation does not cover the cost of admission to the field but does guarantee the holder a seat in the reserved seat section, which will be located in the center of the bleachers on the visitors' side of the field.

Only 500 reserved seat tickets will be sold for each game, and all will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Any tickets not sold in advance will be available at War Memorial Field gate on the day of the game.

All donations will go to the War Memorial Field Fund, the purpose of which is to raise money for further development of the recreational area.

Jaycees will also provide personnel for patrolling the reserved seat section on the day of each game.

Redlegs Take 10th Consecutive Overtime Win as Braves Lose; Bums in 3rd; Cleveland Taken

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

Win, lose or draw, the Cincinnati Redlegs are almost certain to walk off with the following honors this year:

1. The most successful extra-inning club in the major leagues.
2. The most powerful home-run hitting crew in big league history.
3. Possessor of the National League's rookie-of-the-year in Frank Robinson.
4. Owner of the No. 1 relief pitcher in both leagues in Hershel Freeman.
5. Having the manager-of-the-year in Birdie Tebbetts.

The amazing Redlegs solidified their hold on all five honors last night by handing the front-running Milwaukee Braves a stunning 4-2 defeat in 10 innings, made possible by Robinson's 37th home run and Freeman's 30th victory-bringing relief job. The Reds' brilliant fireman received credit for his 12th victory. He has saved 18 other games for Cincinnati.

The Reds' triumph, their second in a row over Milwaukee after a seemingly disastrous opening game defeat in Monday's doubleheader, boosted Tebbetts' never-say-die outfit into second place, a half game ahead of Brooklyn and 2 1/2 lengths behind the Braves.

It marked the 10th consecutive overtime triumph for the rampaging Redlegs, who have fought back into contention after having been counted out more times than a glass-churned fighter.

In the only other National League game played last night, the New York Giants thumped Philadelphia 7-2 under the lights.

Cleveland's hopes of overtaking the American League leading New York Yankees became dimmer than ever when the tail-end Kansas City Athletics dumped the second placers 5-2 to drop the Indians nine games behind New York.

Chicago's third place White Sox climbed to within two games of the Tribe by whipping Detroit 11-4 and Boston needed a 12th-inning home run by Ted Lepcio to nip Washington 7-6. Baltimore and New York had a day off.

Freeman made his 49th mound appearance for Cincinnati in the ninth with the score tied 2-2, and gave up a leadoff double to rookie Earl Hersh, playing in his first major league game. But he pitched out of the jam by purposely walk-

Hare and Hound Enter Horse Show At Scandia Monday

It was a hare and hound that almost stole the Y-Bar-U Saddle Club Horse Show at Scandia on Labor Day.

While 27 horses, riders and a good crowd stood by, a rabbit streaked onto the track, closely followed by a small dog. As the stands roared, hare and hound circled the track three times before valor gave way to discretion and the stev-bound creature darted back to the barn hutch.

Other excitement came in a series of spills, the worst of which was when a horse ridden by Don Kelly lost its footing and came down stunned in a tangle of reins.

Although the rider fell clear it was feared the animal had been injured. A sigh of relief rose when it was apparent the mount had been bruised but had not broken a leg.

Event winners were as follows: CHILDREN'S CLOVER LEAF, 1, Ed Lindsey, 2, Denny Mong; 3, Billy White; 4, Johnny Hedman; 5, Ronny Tubbs. 6, Sonny Uplinger.

LADIES' CLOVER LEAF, 1, Florence Kelly, 2, Sally Babcock, 3, Florence Kelly, 4, Virginia Mohman.

MEN'S MUSICAL BAG 1, Bud Sherman; 2, Phil Mong; 3, Don Turner; 4, Bing Groesch.

CHILDREN'S POP RACE, 1, Ronny Tubbs; 2, Johnny Hedman; 3, Billy White; 4, Eddie Lindsey; 5, Denny Mong; 6, Charles Olson.

LADIES' RUN AND RIDE, 1, Sally Babcock, 2, Florence Kelly, 3, Virginia Mohman.

POLO: (Teams of three)—1st, Don Turner, Bud Sherman, Fred Reynolds. 2nd—Don Kelly, Bing Groesch, Levi Carlson.

CHILDREN'S DIAPER RACE, 1, Ronny Tubbs, 2, Johnny Hedman; 3, Billy White; 4, Carol Fredricks; 5, Mary Calahan; 6, Charles Olson.

LADIES' POLE BENDING, 1, Florence Kelly; 2, Sally Babcock.

MEN'S POLE BENDING, 1, Ken Baker, 2, Don Turner; 3, Don Kelly, 4, Larry Parks.

CHILDREN'S BALLOON RACE, 1, Cassie Kelly and Ronny Tubbs, 2, Johnny Hedman; 3, John Cardmody; 4, Eddie Lindsey, 5, Denny McNally.

WESTERN JUMPING, 1, Don Kelly; 2, Ken Baker; 3, Denny McNally; 4, Florence Kelly.

PONY EXPRESS, 1, Don Turner; 2, Larry Parks; 3, Bud Sherman; 4, Chet Rossey.

Announcer was Charles Carlson. Charles Miller and Ben White were ring masters.

Prior to the horse show on Y-Bar-U Saddle Club grounds at Scandia, approximately 30 riders and guests either rode or drove up Sunday evening for an all-night camp-out.

Steaks and chickens were cooked that night and the more hardy, after an evening around a huge campfire, slept at the grounds in horse trailers, trucks, cars and around the fire. The skies remained clear but the dew was deep in the morning as early risers prepared breakfast.

Excitement was caused when a horse bolted into the woods and had to be chased into a pasture for later capture after the show. Members are reminded that Y-Bar-U officers will be elected at the next meeting this Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hohman, Jackson Street Extension.

Full-Time Scholar Is Elevated to America's No. 1 Tennis Position

By ED CORRIGAN
Forest Hills, N. Y. (AP)—If any American is going to prevent an all-Australian final in the National tennis championships, Hamilton Richardson, part-time player and full-time scholar, is the logical candidate.

A graduate of Tulane University who is studying in England under a Rhodes Scholarship, Richardson suddenly has found himself in the position of America's No. 1 player.

Vic Seixas, the old standby at 33, is far beyond his peak and already has had three wearying matches with players he could have beaten with a hole in his racket in his younger days. In his three matches, he has played a total of 14 sets, including an uphill 8-6, 4-6, 3-6, 12-10, 8-6 triumph over Chile's Luis Ayala, yesterday.

Richardson, on the other hand, has whipped through three opponents with the loss of only one set. That came in his third-rounder yesterday against Mike Quilian of Seattle, whom he licked 4-6, 6-2, 6-2.

"If I'm lucky enough to get to the final," said Richardson today, "I guess I would rather meet Lew Hoad than Ken Rosewall. I have beaten Lew in three of our last four matches."

The only trouble is that he is in Hoad's half of the draw, so Rosewall will be on the other side of the court if he does meet an Aussie in the final.

Erie County All-Stars Lose Save-an-Eye Game

Corry Journal: The County All-Stars tried in vain to cop their first Labor Day Save-An-Eye game, but went down for the 18th time before the Erie stars 33-12.

Academy's great end Dave Blake stood out for the city slickers, scoring twice, once in the first quarter and scampered 60 yards, and again in the last quarter on a 45-yard pass play.

North East's rapid halfback Tony San Filippo, well known to local fans for his performance on the Corry gridiron, played a brilliant game, both on offense and defense, but failed to get enough support from his team mates. He was responsible for one county marker, on a one-yard plunge.

Jack Delavern, McDowell halfback, scored the other on a 50-yard pass play from Tom Hlinska of Harborcreek.

Corry had one boy in the tilt. Guard Floyd Wilkinson did a good job in the line for the county.

Two No-Hitters in the Class A Eastern League

Schenectady, N. Y. (AP)—The waning Class A Eastern League season produced two no-hitters Saturday night.

Hank Bolinda, a 23-year-old Schenectady righthander, held Albany hitless for nine innings and shut out the Senators 1-0 in the second game of a doubleheader here. Bolinda, walked three and fanned eight.

Another righthander, Binghamton's Zack Monro, pitched a no-hit, 6-0 victory over Syracuse in the seven-inning opener of a twin bill at Binghamton.

(Editor's Note—Hank Bolinda pitched for Bradford in the PONY League last season.)

Forward Pass To Observe Its 50th Anniversary Today

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
St. Louis (AP)—The forward pass is the exciting, explosive play that opened up—possibly saved—the game of football. It all started 50 years ago today.

It's finally been established beyond argument that the first forward pass was thrown by a St. Louis University player against Carroll College at Waukesha, Wis., Sept. 5, 1906.

It wasn't a desperate, hit-or-miss play but came after long planning by Eddie Cochems, former Wisconsin hero who coached the St. Louis team that season.

The origin of the pass once was the subject of debate. A movie several years ago on the life of Knute Rockne created the impression Gus Dorais threw the first one to Rockne for Notre Dame against Army in 1913.

Both Dorais and Rockne have credited Cochems with pioneering the pass. So has the Football Hall of Fame.

The Football Rules Committee decided after the 1905 season to permit the ball to be thrown forward. The action resulted from public indignation over frequent injuries and deaths in the bone-crushing mass formations of the era.

Prodded by President Theodore Roosevelt, the group of college presidents met to consider ways to open up the game.

The ball then wasn't the bullet-shaped projectile it is today but Cochems studied it and learned it could be spiraled by gripping the laces.

St. Louis went on to a perfect 11-0 season, scored 407 points and numbered Marquette, Kansas Drake and Iowa among its victims.

St. Louis University gave up football seven years ago under the pressures of the big-time game the pass helped create.

New Thrill Event At Skyline Tonight

Although the modified stock car races have been discontinued at the Skyline Speedway for the season, that Sugar Grove oval will not remain idle on Wednesday evenings. A new and exciting program has been laid out and is slated to start at 8:30 p. m. today.

A full ten event program which will be highlighted by the running of not one but two, twenty-five lap features will be in the offing each Wednesday night. Two classes of stock passenger cars will compete in two separate programs.

Returning on Wednesday will be the same 1954-1955 late model stock cars that fans see Sunday evenings. These drivers will be competing for track and circuit points as usual.

The new comer in the racing program at Skyline will be the post-war models, 1946-1953 vintage cars and will provide area fans with many a thrill as spin-outs and flips are quite numerous in this class of racing. These cars are not being added to the card to bolster the field of cars but will constitute an individual program and will not be mixed with the Late Models. An extremely large field of cars is expected to compete in this class.

Each class will compete in a series of heat races with the two-25-lap features climaxing the evening's racing program.

Beavers Pointing Toward Game With The WHS Dragons

According to the Corry Journal the Beavers, pointing toward the 1956 opener at Warren, looked like an improving ball team last Saturday in a controlled scrimmage against Erie East in Erie. Only serious fly in the local ointment appeared to be in the downfield blocking.

Passing also was found to be in need of some brushing up. Both these departments will get a thorough going over during the brief period left this week for drills.

Today saw a full day of drills, and tapering off began in preparation for the weekend contest. Tomorrow will see the big team begin after-school sessions and further drills in the evening. On Friday, the club will get into uniform and settle for a loosening up process before tackling the Warren outfit.

The bright note of the week was sounded by Coach Lou Hanna today when he said that, if the team looks as good as it did against Erie East, he will be satisfied come Saturday.

Meanwhile at Warren, where Hanna watched the Beavers' first '56 opponents in a scrimmage session, Coach Fred Bel presented two teams of about equal strength. The club looked pretty good, Hanna stated.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

BATTING — Frank Robinson, Redlegs, snapped a 2-2 tie with a 10th-inning home run after singling and scoring earlier to pave the way for Cincinnati's 4-2 triumph over Milwaukee.

PITCHING — Hershel Freeman, Redlegs, pitched himself out of a ninth inning jam and went on to hurl two scoreless relief innings to receive credit for Cincinnati's 4-2 triumph over Milwaukee. It was his 12th relief victory. He has also saved 18 other Redleg triumphs.

Two Teen-agers Are Killed in Traffic Accident at Indiana

Indiana, Pa. (P)—An auto swerved off a street and side-swiped three large trees last night, killing two teenagers and injuring two others.

The victims were Carol Patterson, 16, Homer City, and John D. Layton, 16, of Indiana, RD 1. Both were thrown from the auto.

Wayne O. Twigg, 18, of Indiana, RD 2, identified as the driver, was admitted to Indiana Hospital with a broken collar bone and back injuries. Gladys Kunkle, 17, of Homer City, was treated for brush burns.

Police said the four had driven to a restaurant here and were returning home when the crash occurred on south Sixth street extension. The impact sheared off the left side of the auto from front to rear bumper.

Authorities Still Hope for Break in Abduction Mystery

Hamden, Conn. (P)—This community assumed a semblance of quiet normalcy today to help ease the shock and tension that came with the kidnapping of six-week-old Cynthia Ruotolo.

It was back to school for thousands of children in this town of 35,000. And among the pupils to report for the start of a new school year was 8-year-old Kenneth Ruotolo, Cynthia's brother.

He is a third grade pupil in the Mt. Carmel Grammar School, a short distance from the modest home of Cynthia's parents, Stephen and Eleanor.

The Ruotolos have another child, Susan, 20 months old.

From the outside, even the Hamden police headquarters looked the way it might on any other day. The crowds that milled around it for hours after Cynthia was snatched from her carriage Saturday had disappeared.

Inside a big conference room, however, FBI agents and Hamden and state policemen still pressed their around-the-clock check on leads, still waiting with phones at their elbows for the one tip that might break the case.

Integration

"Deep South" generally was holding firm against the high tribunal's integration decision of May 17, 1954.

Law and order, supported by Tennessee National Guardsmen with tanks, appeared to be winning out at Clinton, Tenn. Nine of the 12 eligible Negroes attended classes yesterday and then walked to nearby homes in the east Tennessee town. They were taken home in cars previously. Only 257 white children out of the total enrollment of 806 attended classes, however.

At Oliver Springs, 12 miles west of Clinton, a crowd of about 400 broke up soon after arrival of a National Guard reconnaissance patrol from Clinton. Fred Giles, night police chief at Oliver Springs, said plans to march on Clinton to "get those Negroes" were abandoned.

At Mansfield, Tex., an attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said last night that efforts to enroll 12 Negro pupils in the high school have been abandoned for the present.

Veep's Father

when an abdominal artery ruptured. His physical stamina amazed his physician.

The vice president took his father's death "pretty badly," friends said. He remained in seclusion in the big, two-story home in nearby La Habra.

The vice president's father arranged the funeral services with an oldtime friend, Dr. George Jenkins, who will officiate. The services will be held at 2 p. m. (PDT) Friday in the family church, the East Whittier Friends Church.

Nixon died in his own room where he had asked to remain.

WATER MAIN BURSTS
Pittsburgh (P)—A 24-inch water main burst in suburban Dormont early today, turning streets into rivers and causing thousands of dollars damage. The basements and first floors of nine homes were flooded as the water flowed down Celeron Avenue and across into Eastmont and Kelton Avenues. Police helped evacuate several families.

PLEADS INNOCENT
Mineola, N. Y. (P)—Angelo LaMarca, 31, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity today in the fatal kidnapping of Peter Weinberger, 33 days old. Trial was set for Oct. 1. His attorney, David M. Markowitz, contended LaMarca, a machinist and part-time cab driver, was driven out of his mind by mounting debts.

Times Topics

MINOR AUTO MISHAP
Damage estimated at $25 was caused about 4 p. m. yesterday when a woman driving east on Pennsylvania avenue nicked the back of a car pulling into a parking space in front of R. W. Norris company. Borough police said the damage was all inflicted on the vehicle driven by Mamie R. Swanson, 24 Orchard street. Parking car was operated by M. H. Abplanalp, 106 South street.

Interesting Experiment In Trading Positions

Pittsburgh (P)—Some 175 high school science teachers from Allegheny County and 175 industrial research scientists will trade jobs Sept. 19 in an experiment aimed at improving science teaching.

The teachers will visit the research laboratories of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. and the scientists will conduct the teachers' classes.

The scientists are from Westinghouse, U. S. Steel Corp., the Aluminum Company of America and the Gulf Oil Corp.

Republicans Ahead In Enrollments in Columbus Township

A hard-working committeeman, Leslie Dodd, enlisted 54 new Republicans onto party rolls in Columbus township yesterday, an area generally considered to be a Democratic stronghold.

Democrats there signed up 28, non-partisans, two.

In field registrations at Russell yesterday, 22 Republicans registered, nine Democrats and one non-partisan.

At the Court House Tuesday, recorded were 20 Republicans, three Democrats and one non-partisan.

Field registrations continue tomorrow from 1 to 8 p. m. at Youngsville and Sheffield. Friday the round-the-county signups will conclude at Youngsville and Clarendon.

Registrations officials reminded that tomorrow Thursday, September 6, was the last day a Pennsylvanian could move from one voting district to another and still be eligible to vote. (Two months is required, previous to voting day, November 6.)

CRUSHED BY TRUCK

Greensburg (P)—Two-year-old George Felbaum of nearby Youngstown, was crushed to death last night by a truck that was backing up in the driveway of his home.

DIES FROM BURNS

Connellsville (P)—Charles W. Johnston, 81, died last night from burns suffered August 22 when sparks from his pipe ignited his clothing. Johnston had been blind for many years.

EDITOR HAS ODD ACCIDENT

Waynesburg (P)—The editor of the Waynesburg Democrat-Messenger, Floyd H. Miller, suffered a broken left arm fracture yesterday when he slipped and fell while attempting to enter an auto. Miller, who began his vacation Monday, was visiting friends in nearby Whiteley Twp. when the accident occurred.

MAY BE CRASH VICTIM

Pittsburgh (P)—Robert Bow-
lus Jr., 16, was found dead in bed yesterday, and a physician said death may have resulted from injuries received in an auto crash.

The youngster was driving a car that overturned in nearby Baldwin Borough last Thursday, but he did not complain of any injuries.

The coroner's office reported death was caused by post-traumatic acute broncho pneumonia which may have resulted from the crash.

RANGER ESCORT—Rev. E. W. Clark, left, an Episcopal clergyman, is escorted by a Texas Ranger, after catcalls and hisses interrupted his attempt to lecture on the equality of man to some 200 white persons in front of the Mansfield (Texas) High School. The crowd had gathered to prevent three Negroes from enrolling in the all-white school.

Teachers' Meeting

average capability and motivating them to go on to post-high school education—these are problems that deserve and require the best thought of all of us."

Gerald Newton, direction of instruction in Warren schools then spoke on the aims and future plans of local education and how these were now due for another reappraisal after eight years.

Harry Hutchings, in his welcome to the Warren Education Association which he heads, noted that henceforth, Dr. Whipple had announced the WEA could meet partly on school time for its sessions every other month.

Then the following new teachers were introduced by principals of school where they would teach: Miss Alta Vogle, teacher of third grade at East street was introduced by Principal Paul Mutzabaugh; Kenneth Plimpton, fifth grade, introduced by David Olson, Jefferson principal.

Ronald Howard, fifth grade, introduced by Lacy principal, Miss Alice Anderson; Mrs. Grace Swanson, third, introduced by Miss Veura Schuler, McClintock; Mrs. Eileen Johnson, kindergarten, by South Street Principal Miss Edith Berkman.

Beaty Principal Henry Powell introduced the following new teachers: James Johnson, Kenneth Samara, A. Dale Jones, social studies; Miss Selby Bosler, Miss M. Elaine Anderson, math; Mrs. Marjorie Kelly, art; Miss Elizabeth Eddy, William Campbell, English; S. Harry Spackman, science; Valentine Condo, science, math; Miss Beverly Williams, English, Latin; John Leathers, special education.

Joseph Passaro, high school principal, introduced: Richard Kauffman, German, Spanish; Miss Mary Jane McHenry, English, drama; Harold Miller, health and new wrestling coach, (when he arrives); Miss Dawn Taft, chemistry.

Instruction director Newton introduced Paul Volkman, new speech instructor for the schools.

Transferring from Beaty to high school were Fred Schultz, art; Eugene Williams, biology.

Arthur Says Marilyn Not Going to Have Baby

London (P)—Playwright Arthur Miller returned from the United States today and denied his actress wife, Marilyn Monroe, is going to have a baby.

"It's absolute rubbish," said Miller. "There is not a word of truth in it."

Marilyn, who is making a film here with Sir Laurence Olivier, has been absent from the set for five days. Doctors have treated her for stomach ailments.

Miller told newsmen at the airport Marilyn has been suffering from gastritis.

BUSINESS MIRROR

By SAM DAWSON

New York (AP)—The new year for most business gets under way next week. And rarely have businessmen faced September with more confidence—or, at least, with higher hopes.

September may well show whether the Federal Reserve Board is right in its suspicion that a new boom is in the making, especially in the capital goods industries, or whether balky consumers will dash the hopes of the everything's-going-to-be-bigger-and-better boys.

The Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, in its September survey out today, says: "Consumer willingness to buy has withstood the advance of prices and also apparently the unsettling effects of the nationwide steel strike."

Merchants seem confident, that consumer spending will be sustained, especially in the soft goods lines, and that sales of durables will pick up in time for a big Christmas season.

September will see the auto dealers in their last big flurry to get rid of the 1956 models as the auto makers change over for production of the 1957's. The new cars probably will carry higher price tags. And there is talk today that the tighter money situation and costlier credit may increase the charges for financing cars bought on time.

By the end of September the auto industry's layoff totals should be shrinking. The steel industry expects to go through the month at a near capacity rate and to have made up most of the tonnage lost during the strike and to be back on a current basis again by the end of the year. With steel scrap prices now at a record high, the mills will be turning out expensive steel next month.

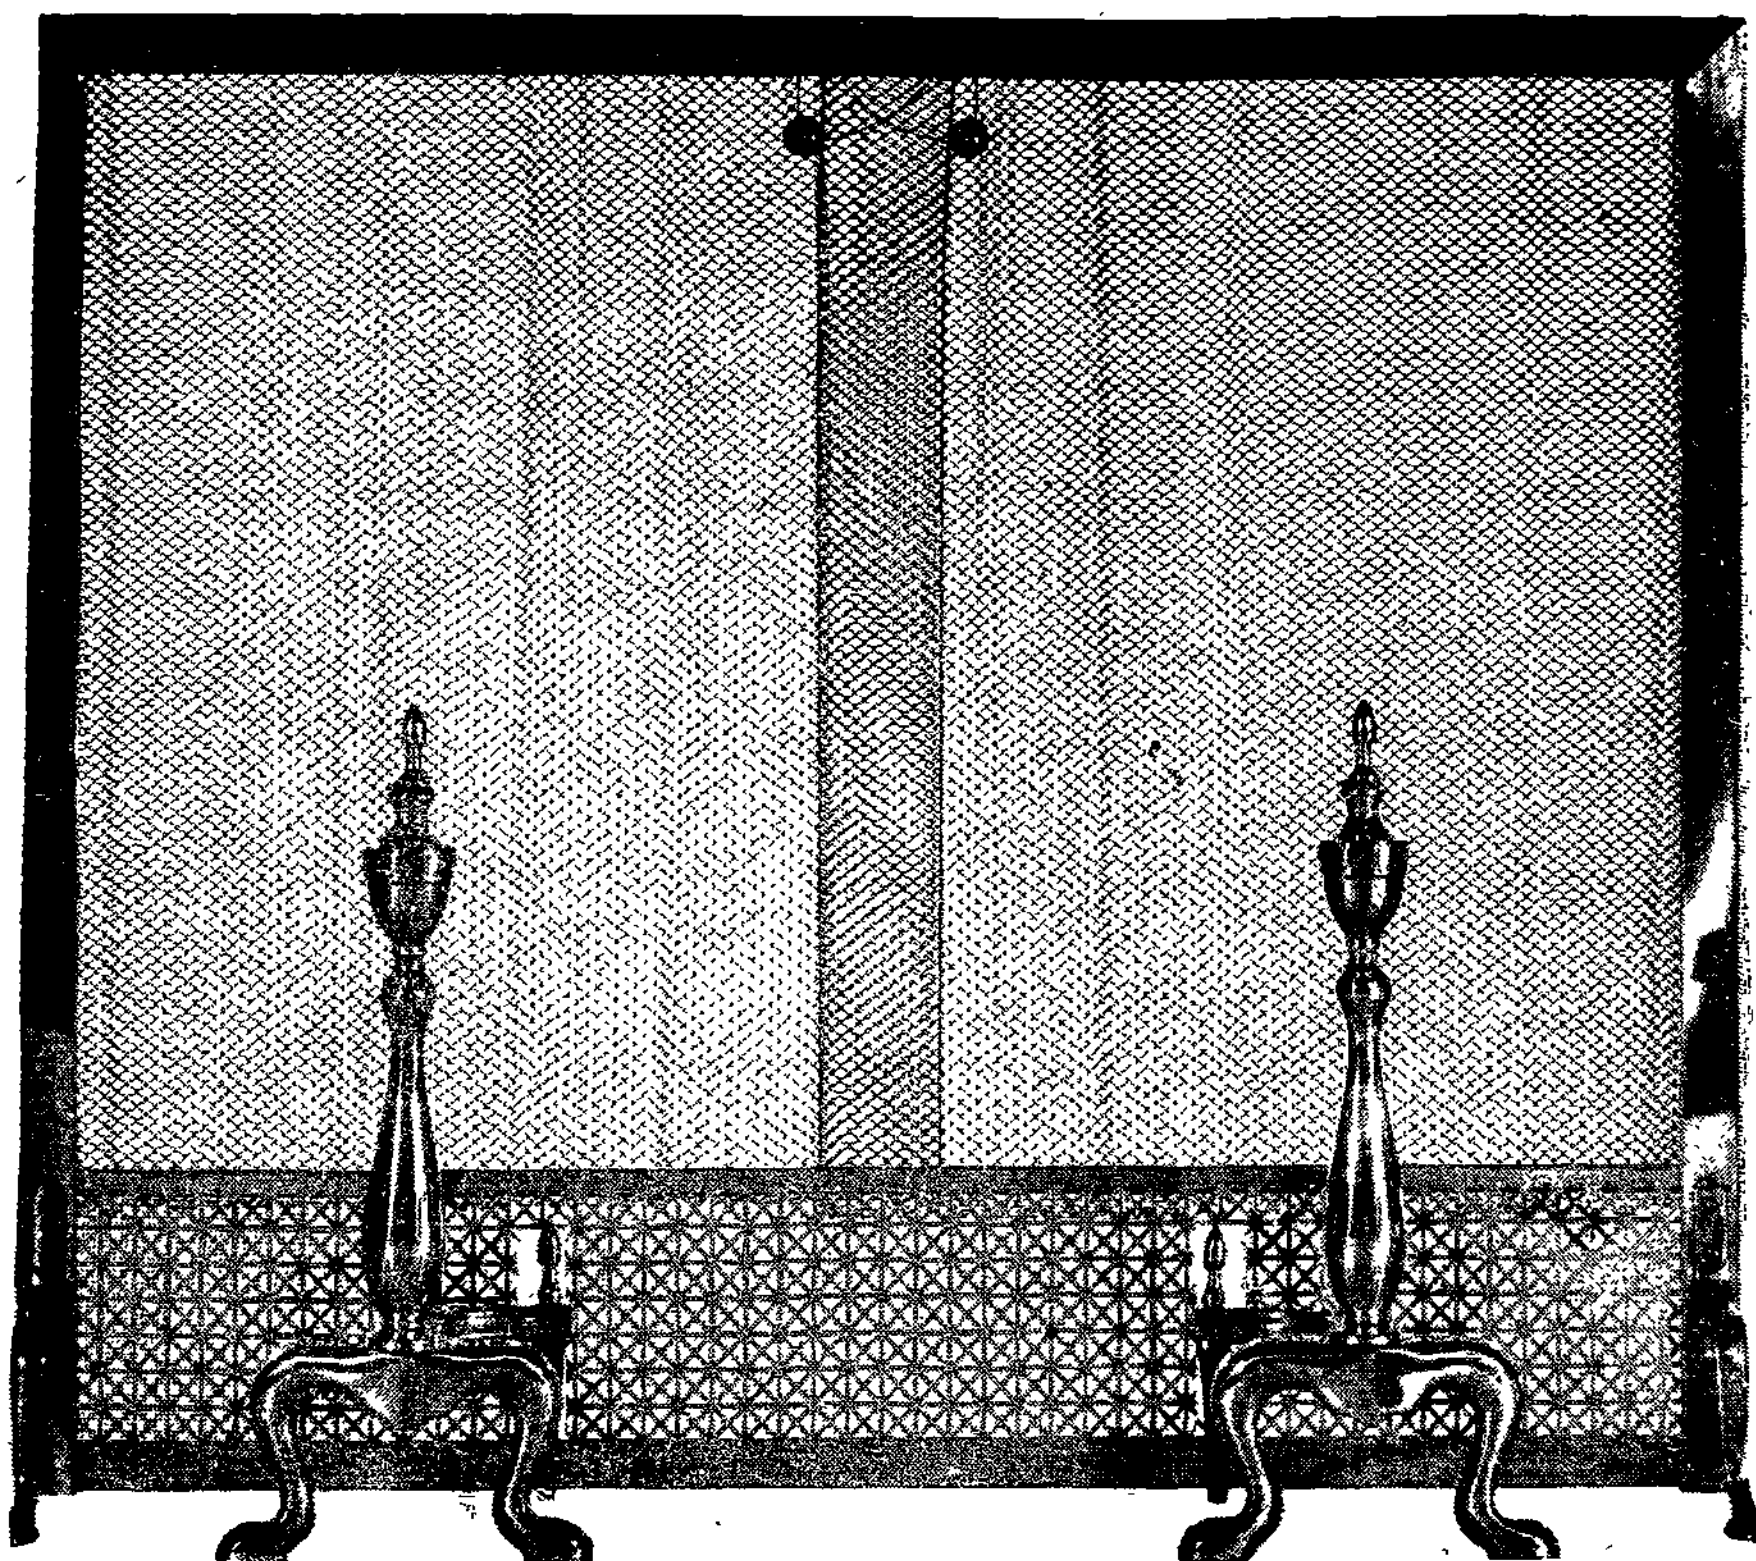

September may show if there will be any letup in the big spending spree of business now that credit is harder to come by and money commands a higher price. Most observers look for the investment boom to go right on next month.

But they will be watching closely to see if there's any building up of inventories beyond that of normal in September in preparation for the Christmas trade. What steel consumers do will be particularly noted.

But the consumer remains the real question mark. If he takes the higher prices in stride, it should be a prosperous fall.

FOR THE KIDS

Flint, Mich. (AP)—Flint's nine city commissioners gave up a trip to the Michigan Municipal League meeting so children won't have to pay an extra five cents to swim in the city pools.

The commission turned over $1,350 set aside for the league trip when advised that a deficit in park funds would make it necessary to boost swimming pool fees from 5 to 10 cents.
